St John's Primary School visit to the graveyard October 2017

Group of pupils from St John's Primary School on a visit to the graveyard to discover who was buried there and find out about some of the famous people who lived in the area in the past.